A Brief Profile

GCW Nawakadal is situated in Sheh-re-Khaas, an area known for its rich historical and cultural heritage in Srinagar, Jammu and Kashmir. The college's location within this historically significant area adds to its cultural relevance. Its strategic location in Sheh-re-Khaas ensures that it is easily accessible to students from various parts of Srinagar and nearby areas, making education more accessible to the local community. The college fosters cultural integration and awareness among its students.

The college plays a pivotal role in providing quality higher education to women in the region. It serves as an educational hub, empowering women with knowledge and skills, contributing to their personal and professional growth. It has emerged as a beacon of learning and empowerment for women while maintaining a connection to the local heritage.

The college has recently achieved the prestigious A+ grade with CGPA 3.27 in the third cycle of assessment and accreditation by the National Assessment and Accreditation council (NAAC). The NAAC Peer team visited the college on 13th and 14th of June 2023 and conducted a thorough assessment of various aspects of the institution.

This remarkable accomplishment of securing the A+ grade, reflects the college's commitment to academic excellence and its dedication to providing high-quality education. GCW Nawakadal is now recognized as a top-tier institution, known for its outstanding faculty, rigorous academic programs, and a nurturing environment that fosters holistic development among its students. This A+ grade reaffirms its status as a leading educational institution in the region, attracting students and faculty who aspire to be part of its academic community.

It is noteworthy that the score achieved by the college is the highest among all the colleges of the Jammu and Kashmir that have been graded so far by NAAC.

Principal's Message

Dear college community,

It is with immense pride and a sense of honor that I introduce myself as the new Principal of Government College for Women, Nawakadal, Srinagar. Joining this esteemed institution on August 16th, 2023, marks a significant milestone not only in my career but also in the history of this college.

As the first male Principal since the establishment of this institution in 1961, I am acutely aware of the profound legacy and the remarkable achievements of this college in empowering women through education. I am deeply committed to preserving and furthering the college's rich heritage while ushering in a new era of growth and development.

It is with immense pleasure that I extend my warmest greetings to each one of you through the pages of our beloved newsletter, "Khatoon." As we gather the latest highlights and insights into the life of our institution, I am reminded of the incredible journey we have embarked upon together.

Our college has always stood as a beacon of knowledge, nurturing not just academic excellence but also the character, values, and aspirations of our diverse student body. In every corner of our campus, one can feel the energy and enthusiasm of individuals determined to make a positive impact on the world.

As we move forward into a new academic year, let us embrace the opportunities it brings. Our dedicated faculty, innovative programs, and the collective wisdom of our community are here to guide and inspire you in your pursuit of knowledge and personal growth.

This year, let us renew our commitment to academic rigor, critical thinking, and the pursuit of truth. Let us also celebrate the rich tapestry of culture and ideas that our college represents. Inclusivity, respect, and empathy should continue to be the guiding principles that define our interactions and collaborations.

I encourage each of you to engage actively in the college experience, whether it be through academic achievements, creative endeavors, or community service. The pages of "Khatoon" will continue to chronicle your successes and contributions, both inside and outside the classroom.

Let us remember that our college is not just a place of learning but a community that supports and nurtures dreams. Together, we can achieve greatness and create a brighter future for all.

I eagerly anticipate the exciting developments, innovations, and accomplishments that this year will undoubtedly bring. Thank you for being an integral part of this College.

Wishing you all a wonderful year ahead filled with knowledge, growth, and success!

Warm regards,

Prof.(Dr.) Muhammad Farooq Mir

Principal

Editor's Note

It is with immense pride and enthusiasm that I present to our esteemed readers the second issue of our college newsletter Khatoon for the year 2023.

Our college has always been a hub of vibrant activities. The various college committees have been instrumental in organizing a plethora of events that have not only enriched our academic experience but have also added a sense of dynamism to our campus life. From cultural festivals that celebrated our diversity to seminars and workshops that expanded our knowledge horizons, these events have been the threads weaving our college community closer together. I wholeheartedly applaud the outstanding contribution and inspiring initiatives taken up by different departments and college committees.

I would like to take a moment to express my heartfelt appreciation for College Newsletter Committee without whom this newsletter was not possible. Their dedication, creativity, and tireless efforts have brought this newsletter to life. Their commitment to delivering engaging content that reflects the vibrant spirit of our college is truly commendable.

As we continue our journey through 2023, let this newsletter be your guide to staying updated on college happenings, achievements, and opportunities. We are committed to keeping you informed, inspired, and connected.

Here's to a year filled with knowledge, growth, and endless possibilities.

Hopefully all the readers will enjoy this interesting issue. The readers feedback is always valuable to us.
